"Monteniko" for autumn 2026

2026 Hiking Trip to Montenegro: "Hiking Trails in Golden Autumn"

Preface: The Magic of Autumn in Montenegro

Autumn is arguably the finest season to experience the pristine, untouched beauty of Montenegro. As the summer heat fades, a peaceful, tranquil atmosphere envelopes the coastal towns, while the country's mountains and national parks are painted in breathtaking shades of crimson and gold.

Our 8-day hiking and excursion program is custom-designed for those wishing to combine the mild maritime climate of the Adriatic with active trekking. Your base for the journey will be the charming coastal town of Petrovac, staying at a comfortable 4-star hotel located just 100 meters from the beach. Ahead of you lie jaw-dropping panoramas of the Bay of Kotor, mirrored glacial lakes, ancient forests, dramatic canyons, and deep encounters with Balkan history. We have carefully balanced the itinerary to include essential baseline hikes alongside a selection of unique, optional routes.

The group size is capped to ensure maximum comfort (minimum 10, maximum 16 participants), accompanied by an expert English-speaking guide throughout the entire trip.
